Establishing April 24 Alaska Constitution Day Sectional Analysis

Senate Bill 28

Version: 32-LS0278\B

Section 1.

Amends AS 44.12.010(a) by inserting subsection (5) which denotes the 24th day of April, or Vic Fischer and Jack Coghill Constitution of the State of Alaska Day, as a legal holiday in the state of Alaska.

Section 2.

Conforms exceptions under AS 44.12.020 to align with newly created subsection (5) under AS 44.12.010(a) to ensure every Sunday continues to be recognized as a legal holiday in the state of Alaska.

Section 3.

Inserts applicability language to ensure this legislation does not void or create an unintended impact on any existing state contract.

Section 4.

Establishes an effective date of July 1, 2021.
