FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2021 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 105

Analysis

House Bill 105 makes several changes to the court system's responsibilities when certain minors are within the custody of, or are subject to the jurisdiction of, the Division of Juvenile Justice [DJJ] or the Department of Corrections [DOC].

Section 3 of the bill adds a new subsection into existing law requiring a court to issue a written order, including specified findings, when a minor who is a child in need of aid violates the court's order regarding placement of the child, and the court determines the minor must be placed in a juvenile detention home. This applies if the minor is found to be a runaway in willful violation of the court order. The court expects the number of these determinations and orders to be low, and anticipates no fiscal impact from the new requirements in section 3 of HB 105.

Section 8 of the bill adds a new section that applies when minors are either "auto-waived" into adult court under AS 47.12.030(a), or prosecuted in adult court under the "discretionary waiver" provision, AS 47.12.100(a). Until those minors turn 18 and are transferred to the DOC, their placement will be handled under an agreement between the DJJ and the DOC. Under new AS 47.12.105(c), a court may order a minor to be held in an adult facility under certain circumstances, after considering specified factors. Further, the court must hold periodic hearings if a minor is held in an adult facility.

These changes will impact the court's workload in these cases of auto waiver or discretionary waiver, but the court system anticipates that it can handle these new hearings and orders without fiscal impact.
