Employment History

Employment work history including paid, unpaid, or voluntary.
A lifelong Alaskan, I have worked a variety of jobs growing up and during college. From a young 15-year-old boy working at Red Robin as a Mascot, to a warehouse night shift worker at Food Services of America during high school. During college I worked as a commercial fisherman in Bristol bay as a deck hand for the Sockeye run. After collage I became a raft guide in the Denali Park area and managed a small rafting company. In 2005 I co-founded our first small business Denali Visions 3000 which operated a full-service Bar/Restaurant and managed 12 small rental cabins just outside Denali National Park. In 2009, we opened the first grocery and Liquor Store in the Denali Canyon Sled Dog Liquor and Grocery. In 2010 my partners and I opened, Prospectors Historic Pizzeria and Ale house. That same year we also acquired a full-service gas station Miners Market and McKinley RV in Healy, Alaska. In August 2010 we opened 49th State Brewing Company in Healy, Alaska. In 2012 we acquired the Denali Crow's Nest Cabins. In 2016 we opened 49th State Brewing Co. in Downtown Anchorage.
