

Christina J. Durham, Ph.D., MSCP
Clinical and Forensic Psychology
Licensed Alaska & Utah

Education:

- 2006 - 2008 Postdoctoral Master of Science in Clinical Psychopharmacology
California School of Professional Psychology
Alliant International University
- 1994-1998 Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology (APA accredited)
Child, Adolescent and Family Emphasis
Brigham Young University, Provo, UT
Honors: Multicultural Honor Roll & Student Life Deans List
Graduated: August, 1998
- 1993-1994 Bachelor of Science in Psychology
Brigham Young University, Provo, UT
Honors: Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society
Golden Key National Honor Society
Brigham Young University, Academic Scholarship
American Psychological Association:
Minority Undergraduate Student of Excellence (MUSE) 93/94
- 1990-92 Associate of Applied Science in Human Services
Family and Youth Emphasis
University of Alaska Anchorage
Honors: Chancellor's list 91/92
Dean's list 92/93
Psi Chi National Honor Society
American Psychological Association:
Minority Undergraduate Student of Excellence (MUSE) 92/93

Experience:

- Sept '99 to April '13 Private Forensic and Clinical Practice - St. George, Utah
Child-custody evaluations, visitation evaluations, psychological evaluations and other evaluations for children, adolescents, adults and families. Interventions in high conflict divorce and/or visitation. Contracts to perform evaluations and/or provide services for Social Security Disability, Fifth District Juvenile Probation, Division of Child and Family Services, Fredonia-Moccasin School District, and RedCliff Ascent adolescent wilderness therapy program. Provided therapy for issues of depression, anxiety, sexual abuse, trauma, relational difficulties, conduct disorder, substance abuse, parenting, step-family issues as well as expert testimony in related matters. Court Roster for Mediation, and Forensic examiner for the State of Utah.
- May '96 to 2000 Academy for Child Advocacy and Family Support (ACAFS)
A non-profit organization focused on providing parent education, mediation, micro-management & arbitration (special master appointments) as well as child, individual and couples therapy to the children and families of high-conflict divorce, often with allegations of abuse or neglect. Hiring and training of interns to provide supervised visitation of parents, pre-post visitation interviewing of children who are experiencing problems with visitation. Provided expert testimony and reports to the court as well as coordinating treatment/services with community agencies, attorneys and private providers.
September '98 to April '00 -Clinical Director
May '96 to August '98 - Psychology Resident

Jan to April '08 & '10	Adjunct Faculty Dixie State College. Teaching Introduction to Psychology and Abnormal Psychology courses
Aug '99 to April '00	Adjunct Faculty at Brigham Young University (BYU). Teaching upper division courses in clinical psychology and psychological testing.
May '96 to Sept '99	Jay P. Jensen, Ph.D. - private practice Child custody evaluations, psychological testing and therapy with families, children, adolescents and adults.
Nov '98 to Dec '99	Family Abuse Center for Treatment (F.A.C.T.) Providing court ordered sex offender treatment: individual and group therapy.
Aug '98 to April '99	Adjunct Faculty at Utah Valley State College (UVSC). Teaching Introduction to Psychology courses
Sept '97 to Sept '98	Valley Mental Health, SLC Utah Six month rotations at 2 outpatient facilities providing psychological assessments, individual and group therapy for children, adolescents and adults, as well as consultation and coordination with community service providers (e.g., DCFS, CPS,). Rotations completed at the Alcohol and Drug Unit, University of Utah Medical Center psychiatric unit and the Research and Program Evaluation Unit.
January to April '97	Kahuku High School Alternative Learning Center, Kahuku, Hawaii. Individual and group psychotherapy with low-income Pacific Islander adolescents. Patient population included learning, mood, anxiety, disruptive-behavior and substance related disorders.
January to April '97	Brigham Young University Counseling Center - Laie, Hawaii. Outpatient based psychotherapy and assessment of university students of Pacific Island and Asian origin. Patient population included individuals and couples with anxiety, mood, learning, adjustment, and attention-deficit disorders as well as marital and communication problems.
January to April '97	Adjunct Faculty at Brigham Young University, Hawaii (BYU-H). Teaching Introduction to Psychology.
June '95 to May '96	Utah State Prison, Special Services Dormitory (SSD), Draper, Utah Provided sex offender treatment which included treatment planning and evaluation, individual and group psychotherapy. Additionally, performed forensic assessments for the Utah State Board of Pardons
Jan '95 to June '97	Brigham Young University Comprehensive Clinic Outpatient based individual and group psychotherapy as well as psychological assessment with adult, adolescent, and child patients. Patient populations included mood, anxiety and personality disorders.

Professional Affiliations:

American Psychological Association
Alaska Psychological Association
Association for Family and Conciliation Courts
Utah Court Roster for Mediators (2006-2010)

Community Service:

Dove Center Volunteer, advocate for sexual and domestic violence survivors, 2017/18
Women's Influence Center, Board Member & Vice Chair, 2017/2018
Dixie State University Board of Trustees, September 2013 - 2018
Board Chair, July 2014-2016
Academy for Child Advocacy and Family Support
Executive Board member Sept '99- 2018
Judicial Council's Standing Committee on Children and Family Law, 2007 to 2010
Subcommittee: Child Custody, 2007 to 2015
Restorative Justice and Truancy Mediation, Fifth District Juvenile Court, 2001 to 2011
Critical Incident Stress Management Team (CISM), 2001 to 2010
Child Trauma Treatment Network, Team Leader Southern Utah, 2001-2006
Invited presenter, private Guardian ad Litem Training, St George, Utah, March '02, '03, '05
Invited presenter, Southern Utah Bar, November 2005
Invited presenter, Southern Utah Bar, July 2007
Invited presenter, Utah Bar Conference, March 2008
Invited presenter, Southern Utah Bar, September 2011
Invited presenter, Southern Utah Bar, November 2012

Publications/Presentations:

Durham, C.J., McGrath, L.D., Burlingame, G.M., Schaalje, G. B., Lambert, M. J., & Davies, D. R (2002). The Effects of Repeated Administrations on Self-Report and Parent-Report Scales. Journal of Psychoeducational Assessment, 20, 240-257.

Durham, C.J., Graf, P. F. (October, 2010). Process of Grief and Loss: A Faith Based Dimensional Model. Poster session presented at the biannual meeting of Association of Mormon Counselors and Psychotherapists, Salt Lake City, Utah.

