Explanation of Changes in HB 139, Version G

House Bill 139

“Guardianship; Life-Sustaining Procedures”

The repeal of a subparagraph in statute that currently prohibits a guardian from consenting on behalf of their ward to the withholding of lifesaving medical procedures was inadvertently omitted from Version I of the legislation. Version G includes the repeal.

Specifically, on page 4, after line 1, a new bill section has been added to read:

“* Sec. 6. AS 13.26.316(e)(3) is repealed.”
