

AMERICA'S ARCTIC WARRIORS

USARAK in the Last Year

Army Arctic Strategy

- Chief of Staff of the Army visit to USARAK (Jul 2020)
- Army Arctic Symposium (Dec 2020)
- Army Arctic Strategy (Jan 2021)

Arctic Warrior 21

- Conducted during winter (Feb 2021)
- Assessed Arctic capabilities
- Validated equipping needs and limitations
- Identified strengths and gaps

COVID 19 Response

- Safety of Soldiers, Families, civilians and communities
- Maintained readiness
- Supported civil authorities

Maintained Readiness

Quality Of Life Improvements

- People as #1 Priority
- Focus on Ft Wainwright
  - Improved barracks
  - Better food
  - Assignment pay
  - Talent management
  - Better fitness facilities
  - Operational readiness

Focused on People First

USARAK: The Army's Premier Cold-Weather Force

Army Arctic Strategy calls for investing in a multi-domain task force enabled division headquarters with specially trained and equipped combat brigades to recapture our cold-weather dominance.

- Improving Arctic capability
- Modernizing the force
- Training with allies/partners
- Maintaining readiness

Teamwork

Partner with Joint & Interagency

Expand/Strengthen AKNG & Alaska Native Partnerships

Strengthen Allies & Partners

- ✓ Sustain Enduring Cold Weather and Airborne Relationships
  -
- ✓ Build Relationships with Potential Arctic Partners
  -
  -

Invest in Community Relations

- ✓ Leverage Civilian Aides to the Secretary of the Army
  -
- ✓ Community/Soldier Sponsorship
  -
  -
- ✓ Align units with local communities
  -
- ✓ Enable community access to installations
  -
- ✓ Partner in areas of mutual interest
  -

Ted Stevens
Arctic Security
Center

UNCLASSIFIED

We Are...

AMERICA'S

Arctic Warrior Athletes...always fit and disciplined!

Ready to deploy, fight and win in any environment!

Competent and confident in our craft...Winning Matters!

Team of teams built on mutual trust!

Investing in our competitive advantage – our people!

Committed to the care of our Soldiers, Civilians and Families!

WARRIORS!