

RESUME

Stephen T. Hagedorn

Education:

Bettendorf Iowa High School, Graduated 1966
University of Northern Iowa, BA History, 1971

Military Service:

United States Army 1971 to 1972

Work History:

Alaska Bureau of Land Management 1974
Alaska Railroad Corporation 1975 to 2009, Retired after 34 years

Brief Synopsis of Work History:

Worked for the Alaska Railroad Corporation, retiring after a 34 year career in June 2009, the last 24 years as the corporate Risk Manager. Appointed to the Alaska Workers' Compensation Board in 1991 as a member for Industry by Governor Walter Hickel, reappointed twice by Governor Tony Knowles, and reappointed in 2006 by Governor Frank Murkowski (over 15 years on the Board). Was appointed to the Workers' Compensation Appeals Commission by Governor Sarah Palin in March 2007, and reappointed by Governor Sean Parnell to another 5 year term in March 2012.

Personal:

Married, two sons that live and work in Anchorage. Avid cyclist and hiker. Enjoys travel to new and old destinations.