House Finance Subcommittee

FY2023 Budget Overview

Commissioner Doug Vincent-Lang

Alaska Department of Fish and Game

Last Year

The Department worked to ensure we had the necessary research and management infrastructure in place to safely conduct fisheries and hunts

- The department continued to provide a return on investment of over $11 billion dollars on a General Fund investment of about $70 million.
- Nearly all commercial fisheries were conducted, allowing commercial fishermen to fish their permits and thereby make a living and contribute to the state and local economies through collected fish taxes.
- Sport and personal use fisheries operated, allowing anglers an opportunity to fill their freezers, feed their families, and get outside.
- Subsistence fisheries and hunts occurred, allowing subsistence harvesters opportunities to feed their communities and pass on traditions.
- Hunts occurred throughout Alaska giving Alaskans opportunities to hunt, fill their freezers and pass on traditions.
- Charter fishing and guided hunting operated, providing needed recreational opportunities and economic boosts to the state and local economies.
- Area offices remained open to serve the public.

- Saltwater Sportfishing Operator/Guide Licensing (HB 79)
 - Restores the saltwater guide license fees which funded the saltwater logbook program, an unfunded Federal mandate
