WHAT IS CSBG?

The Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) provides critical funding to Community Action Agencies (CAAs) to operate programs addressing the causes and conditions of poverty under three national goals:

Goal 1 - Individuals and families with low incomes are stable and achieve economic security.

Goal 2 - Communities where people with low incomes live are healthy and offer economic opportunity.

Goal 3 - People with low incomes are engaged and active in building opportunities in communities.

What kind of RESOURCES do CAAs have?

Alaska Community Action Agencies are centrally located to serve their communities.

For maximum impact, they partnered with:

- 88 non-profits
- 58 for-profits
- 3 faith based organizations
- 24 school districts

Community Action Agencies utilize a Results Oriented Management and Accountability system that is strategically designed to ensure accountability and improve performance management. ROMA professionals in the network help agencies with planning, reporting, data analysis and evaluation.

There were 125,880 hours of volunteer time donated to the CAA in Alaska.

Community Action Agencies leverage several other federal, state, local and other private funds.

For every $1 of CSBG, Alaska's CAA leveraged $8.16 from federal, state, local and private sources, including the value of volunteer hours.

- $2,613,273 in CSBG funds were allocated in support of the CAA in Alaska in FY19.
- Including, all leveraged funds Alaska had $23,026,412 available to the CAA network to improve the lives of people with low incomes in FY19.

1 CAA in Alaska also operates the Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP).

1 CAA in Alaska also operates a Head Start Program.

*Value of Volunteer Hours calculated using federal minimum wage, except in those states with a higher minimum wage.
