3 "(m) An absentee ballot application must include an option for a qualified 4 voter to choose to receive absentee ballots by mail for future statewide elections for a 5 period of four years. After the <sup>two or</sup>four-year period concludes, the division shall notify the 6 voter that the voter may reapply to receive absentee ballots by mail for another four- <sup>two or</sup> 7 year period. If the voter votes in person during the four year period, the division shall 8 stop sending the voter absentee ballots. If a previous absentee ballot sent under this 9 section or other mail sent to the voter by the division is returned as undeliverable, the 10 division shall stop sending the voter absentee ballots. A voter may reapply to receive 11 absentee ballots by mail."
