PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

My organization (Northern Industrial Training, LLC (NIT)) is a, post-secondary vocational training school that has operated in both Alaska and North Dakota. NIT is the only American Welding Society Accredited Test Facility in Alaska, is a National Center for Construction Education and Research Accredited Test Sponsor and Assessment Center, has courses certified by the Professional Truck Driving Institute, and has articulation agreements in place with institutions of higher learning. I have participated in or overseen the training and/or testing of over 24,000 people since 2003. Over the last three years, my organization has averaged almost a 90% completion rate and over 80% placement in careers directly related to training.

NIT has a network of thousands of employers throughout North America that post job openings through our alumni placement assistance services and give preference to our graduates.

I have created a network of private sector employers, institutions of higher learning, and student populations, to anticipate and address the workforce shortages.
