Third generation Alaskan born and residing in Anchorage. I own cabins on Lake Creek and the Kenai river, which I purchased specifically for fishing access. I purchased my Lake Creek property in 1982 at the height of the King Salmon fishery on the Yetna River. I strongly believe in conservation of the fishery through sportfishing advocacy and would like to see my grandsons catch a King Salmon on the Kenai or Lake Creek while I can still take them.

I am an avid hunter and fisherman. My interests are hunting, fishing, skiing, basketball, tennis, flying, playing bridge. All of which I still do.

It's time for me to give something back to Alaska, a land that has given me a good life enjoying the outdoors and a healthy family who enjoys it with me.
