To Whom it may concern:

Dave Lorrington is an excellent candidate worthy of your consideration in becoming a member of the Alaska Board of Game. Dave has accumulated a broad knowledge base for both big and small game species, during his 49 years living and working in Alaska as trooper (retired), active commercial bush pilot, hunter, fisherman and falconer.

Dave has an excellent working knowledge of the board of game process and has developed strong working relationships with the department and other agencies.

Dave recently demonstrated impressive leadership qualities while serving as President of the Alaska Falconers Association by unifying a highly polarized user group to support well designed proposals to the board that best reflected the needs of the resource and mitigated the excessive demands of multiple user interests.

Dave wields an excellent skill set in diplomacy and objective reasoning as he listens to all sides of an argument. He has demonstrated this time and time again, in helping the board to create good regulations that both the wildlife resource and multiple user interests can coexist.

Sincerely,

Kurt Schmidt

Re: Support David Lorrington for Board of Game

Dear Chair McKay, Vice-chair Rauscher, and members of the House Resources Committee,

Resident Hunters of Alaska (RHAK) fully endorses and supports the appointment of Dave Lorrington to the Board of Game.

It is rare to find someone as knowledgeable with our hunting regulations and Board of Game process as Dave Lorrington. As a former Alaska Wildlife Trooper, Dave represented our "brown shirts" at Board of Game meetings. He is an avid falconer and has given falconry presentations to the Board of Game in the past, as well as represented Alaska falconers, and is well known to the Fairbanks Fish & Game Advisory Committee from attending meetings. He is also a longtime commercial bush pilot, with a unique and excellent background on what goes on in the field during hunting seasons and what the issues are.

RHAK is very pleased to offer our support for Dave Lorrington's appointment to the Board of Game. We urge you to support his confirmation later this session.

Sincerely,

Mark Richards

Subject: Support Confirmation of David Lorrington BOG

Dear Alaska House Resources Committee,

I fully support the confirmation of David Lorrington for the Board of Game (BOG). I am a lifelong Alaskan, Registered Big Game Guide-Outfitter and a responsible user of Alaska's resources.

I became well acquainted with David during my terms as a Fairbanks Fish & Game Advisory Committee member and attending BOG meetings while David was a wildlife officer/advisor and a member of the public. In addition, he has piloted commercial bush planes into our hunting camp in the Alaska Range for almost 20 years.

David is actively involved in current game management and knowledgeable on historical and recent issues. He is a man of integrity and has always shown respect to all user groups. I believe David Lorrington will be a great asset to the BOG and a custodian of Alaska's resources.

Respectfully,
Debra (Waugaman) Curnow

Please confirm Dave Lorrington to the Alaska Board of Game and withhold your support for former guide Stosh Hoffman and guide Jake Fletcher. The board has too many guides and too few members who support resident hunters over non-resident hunters and guides.

We need some representation on the BOG besides hunting guides (that are a majority on the board). David Lorrington as a former Wildlife Trooper has the qualifications and is not tied to commercial hunting interests. Thanks for your consideration.
