HOUSE BILL 28 v.S.

SECTIONAL ANALYSIS

17th of April, 2023

“Access to Marijuana Conviction Records”

SECTION I: It is the intention of the legislation to reduce barriers to employment and other basic daily functions for individuals who under past statute were convicted of low-level marijuana related crimes.

SECTION II: Describes when, why and to what agencies or organizations information protected in this bill may be released.

SECTION III: Persons aged 21 years or older shall in the provisions of this bill have records of low level marijuana convictions as detailed in this section, which by today's statutes are not a criminal act, made to be inaccessible other than as listed in section II. Individuals having this action taken shall pay a fee of not less than $150.

SECTION IV: Records relating to the individuals and occurrences in this bill shall not be publicly published by the Alaska Court System. Information shall be made available on how to obtain information removed from public view.

SECTION V: An effective date for this act shall be; 1st of January 2024.
