Requirement of Sub-Trusts	The ARM Board shall establish sub-trusts to hold the employer and employee contributions, assets, and earnings of the new DB plans.	The ARM Board shall establish sub-trusts to hold the employer and employee contributions, assets, and earnings of the new DB plans.	The ARM Board shall establish sub-trusts to hold the employer and employee contributions, assets, and earnings of the new DB plans.	Creation of pension and medical sub-trusts for the new DB plans, along with existing HRA sub-trusts, enable better tracking of assets and liabilities and increased protection from prior DB tier liabilities.	PERS & TRS: Sec. 37, p.21-24	Version B did not include this requirement; the SL&C CS recognizes the need.
TRS Members with PERS Service May Add PERS Compensation to TRS for Benefit Calculation	PERS DB members who are also members of a TRS DB plan can elect to have their PERS earnings included in their TRS base salary to potentially count toward their pension benefit calculation.	PERS DB members who are also members of a TRS DB plan can elect to have their PERS earnings included in their TRS base salary to potentially count toward their pension benefit calculation.	TRS DB members who are also members of a PERS DB can elect to have their PERS earnings included in their TRS base salary to potentially count toward their pension benefit calculation.	During vetting of the legislation for the SL&C CS it was observed that some teachers work in PERS service when not teaching while TRS and PERS dual membership was not addressed in law; this remedy was sought.	PERS: Not Applicable TRS: Sec. 3, p.2-3	Version B did not include this election; the SL&C CS recognizes the need for clarity and consistency.
What happens to current DC employees, hired after 2006, if this became law?	Current PERS Tier IV members, including previous transferors from DB Tier III, could opt to convert to the new DB plan within a four-month time window.	Current PERS Tier IV members, including previous transferors from DB Tier III, could opt to convert to the new DB plan within a four-month time window.	Current TRS Tier III members, including previous transferors from DB Tier II, could opt to convert to the new DB plan within a four-month time window.	Giving current DC employees an “opt-in” ensures that current employees can retain their DC plans or choose to opt into the new DB plan.	PERS & TRS: Sec. 89, p.48-49 (Uncodified Law)	No change from Version B

What happens to DC employees who convert to the new DB plan if their DB service time credit is different than their service under DC?	The balance of the account of a PERS Tier IV member opting into the DB plan is valued for DB service time. If the value provides fewer DB years than worked the employee may elect to accept those service years or pay up to full service time. If the value is more than full service time, the member maintains the remainder in the DC account.	The balance of the account of a PERS Tier IV member opting into the DB plan is valued for DB service time. If the value provides fewer DB years than worked the employee may elect to accept those service years or pay up to full service time. If the value is more than full service time, the member maintains the remainder in the DC account.	The balance of the account of a TRS Tier III member opting into the DB plan is valued for DB service time. If the value provides fewer DB years than worked the employee may elect to accept those service years or pay up to full service time. If the value is more than full service time, the member maintains the remainder in the DC account.	Allows DC members opting into DB plan to join without worrying about a mandatory requirement to pay up full service time. Allows DC members with account balances in excess of value necessary to pay full service time credit to maintain a DC account.	PERS & TRS: Sec. 89, p.48-49 (Uncodified Law) PERS: Sec. 55, p.31-32 TRS: Sec. 4, p.3-4	Version B envisioned a mandated pay-up of service time indebtedness; the SL&C CS clarifies that the transferor can choose to accept the value of the service time as the amount of membership service time credit in the new DB plan, or pay up to the full amount of indebtedness for full service time credit.
What happens to new employees, hired after the bill goes into effect, if this became law?	New employees would automatically be enrolled in the new DB plan.	New employees would automatically be enrolled in the new DB plan.	New employees would automatically be enrolled in the new DB plan.	Alaska's workforce challenges recruiting and retaining public workers are the primary motivation driving this legislation. Pensions remain among the best fiscal choices for the state to meet these goals.	PERS: Sec. 52, p.30 TRS: Sec. 1, p.1; Sec. 2, p.1-2	No change from Version B

What happens to former DC employees who left their DC accounts active who are reemployed in service if this bill became law?	Former PERS Tier IV members who are reemployed who kept their DC accounts active can opt to convert from the DC plan to the new DB plan within a four-month time window, regardless of when they come back.	Former PERS Tier IV members who are reemployed who kept their DC accounts active can opt to convert from the DC plan to the new DB plan within a four-month time window, regardless of when they come back.	Former TRS Tier III members who are reemployed who kept their DC accounts active can opt to convert from the DC plan to the new DB plan within a four-month time window, regardless of when they come back.	Giving former DC employees an “opt-in” ensures the employees have flexibility in their options; incentivizes return to public service and potentially increases membership of the new DB plans.	PERS: Sec. 55, p.31-32 TRS: Sec. 4, p.3-4	Version B did not expressly provide for this opt-in policy for former DC members with active accounts.
What happens to former DC employees who did not leave their DC accounts active who are reemployed in service if this bill became law?	Former PERS Tier IV members who are reemployed who did not keep their DC accounts active will become members of the new DB plan, unless their DC account was rolled over to an IRA and rolled back; then they can opt to convert from the DC plan to the new DB plan.
