FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2024 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 170

Analysis

This bill would prohibit a public officer from taking or withholding action against any private person without a justifiable public purpose, meaning that the action is in the best interests of the state and not based on an enumerated improper purpose. Improper purposes include the person's family, financial or other relationship to the public officer, potential to confer future benefits on the public officer, or the person's public policy opinions or political affiliations. Because this legislation only provides additional examples of prohibited conduct by public officers, the department anticipates that costs would be absorbed by existing resources. Consequently, the department does not anticipate a fiscal impact should this bill become law.
