

Share of Income Spent on Rent and the Impact on Homelessness

If the share of income people spend on rent increases by 2 percentage points in Anchorage, AK, 4 more people are predicted to experience homelessness.

If the share of income a median-earning household spends for a median-valued rental in this market increases by x percentage points, y more (or fewer) people are predicted to experience homelessness.

Source: Zillow Research, 2018