

Committee,

I am opposed to House Bill 43. This bill limits counselors free speech and experience and reduces methods of treatment. Children in therapy should have every tool available to help them. This is an example of the few trying to make changes for the many.

Thank you,
CJ Koan
Wasilla