Department of Education & Early Development.

Notes:

- 1) Districts report the number of certified positions that are not filled on the first day of school for the First Day Vacancy Report. As districts have unique start dates, the date varies from district to district.
- 2) All school districts are required to report detailed information concerning the certified staff that they employ on October 1st every year.
- 3) Between the first day of school and the certified staff accounting report date of October 1st, it is expected that some of the vacant positions will be filled.
- 4) With #3 in mind, the percentages are provided to give context to the First Day Vacancy numbers and should only be considered as an approximate vacancy rate.
