I am writing to express my strong opposition to House Bill 155 (HB 155), which establishes the Alaska Military Affairs Commission. While I appreciate the intent behind this legislation, I believe it poses several significant concerns that warrant reconsideration.

Lack of Transparency: HB 155 lacks transparency in its formation and decision-making processes. The establishment of a commission with substantial powers should be subject to rigorous public scrutiny and input. As a concerned citizen, I urge you to ensure transparency by involving the public in the commission's proceedings.

Potential for Unchecked Authority: The bill grants broad powers to the Alaska Military Affairs Commission without clear checks and balances. We must be cautious about creating entities with significant authority that operate outside the usual legislative oversight. HB 155 should include provisions to prevent any abuse of power.

Funding Allocation: The bill does not adequately address how the commission will be funded. Without clear guidelines, there is a risk that taxpayer dollars may be allocated inefficiently or without proper accountability. I urge you to revise the bill to specify funding sources and ensure responsible financial management.

Impact on Local Communities: HB 155 may have unintended consequences for local communities. It is essential to consider the potential effects on residents, businesses, and the environment. A thorough impact assessment should be conducted before implementing such a commission.

Military-Civilian Relations: While collaboration between the military and civilians is crucial, HB 155's approach may not strike the right balance. We must ensure that the commission's actions do not disproportionately favor military interests over those of the broader community.

In light of these concerns, I respectfully request that you reconsider the provisions of HB 155 and engage in a more comprehensive dialogue with constituents. Our state deserves legislation that promotes transparency, accountability, and the well-being of all Alaskans.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I trust that you will carefully consider the implications of HB 155 and act in the best interest of our state.
