

Sec. 23. Judicial Enforcement.

a. In General. If any person violates any provision of this Act, or any rule, regulation, requirement, or orders thereunder, or any term, condition or limitation of any certificate or permit issued under this Act, then the commission, or in the case of a violation of Secs. 6 or 7 of this Act any party in interest (without prior resort to the commission), may apply to the Superior Court of the State of Alaska for the enforcement of said provision, or of such rule, regulation, requirement, order, term, condition, or limitation; and such court shall have jurisdiction to enforce obedience thereto by a writ of injunction or other process, mandatory or otherwise, restraining such person, its officers, agents, employees and representatives, from further violation of said provision or of such rule, regulation, requirement, order, term, condition or limitation, and enjoining upon them obedience thereto.

b. Duty of State's Attorney. Upon the request of the commission, it shall be the duty of the Department of Law of this state to whom the commission may apply to institute in the proper court and to prosecute under the direction of the attorney general of the state all necessary proceedings for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act or any rule, regulation, requirement, or order thereunder, or any term, condition or limitation of any certificate or permit, and for the punishment of all violations thereof.

Sec. 24. Administrative and Judicial Review. Any order, affirmative or negative, issued by the designated representative of the commission under this Act shall be subject initially to review by the commission in the manner prescribed by regulation issued by the commission, and shall be subject thereafter to judicial review as prescribed by the Administrative Procedure Act.

Sec. 25. Penalties. Every person, including any officer, agent or employee of a corporation who violates, procures, aids or abets in the violation of any provision of this Act, or fails to comply with any order, decision or regulation issued by the commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not to exceed $1,000.00. Every day's violation of this Act or of any of the terms or conditions of any such order, decision or regulation shall constitute a separate offense, punishable as aforesaid.

Sec. 26. Public Disclosure of Information. Any person may make written objections to the public disclosure of information contained in any application, report or document filed pursuant to the provisions of this Act or of information obtained by the commission pursuant to the provisions of this Act, stating the grounds for such objection. Whenever any such objection is made, the commission shall order such information withheld from public disclosure when in its judgment a disclosure of such information would adversely affect the interest of such person and is not required in the interest of the public.

Sec. 27. Effective Date. This Act shall take effect on January 1, 1961.
