

each candidate.

The ballots shall be prepared by the Clerks of the Court for their respective districts in general conformity with the provisions of law for the preparation of ballots for general elections except as herein set forth. Across the head of each ballot shall be printed in large type the words "Official Primary Ballot". Across the head of each column shall be printed in clear type and capital letters the party of the candidates listed in such column; and the column at the left hand side of the ballot shall contain the names of the candidates of the political party of the Governor of Alaska at the time of the primary election.

No blank spaces shall be provided on any such ballots for the writing in or pasting in of names, and no vote shall be cast or counted at a primary election for any person whose name is not printed upon the official primary ballot; nor shall any person cast votes for candidates in more than one column. Ballots cast with votes for candidates in more than one party column shall be void in their entirety.

Voters may declare their party preference before obtaining a ballot but shall not be required to do so as a condition for receiving a ballot.

CHAPTER 42

AN ACT

Relating to inheritance and estate taxes; amending Sec. 48-4-8, ACLA 1949 as amended by Ch. 28, SLA 1957; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 51)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Sec. 48-4-8, ACLA 1949 as amended by Ch. 28, SLA 1957 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 48-4-8. Duty of Executor or Administrator to Forward Copy of Inventory and Appraisal to Tax Commissioner: Appraisal as Evidence: Copy of Federal Return and Inventory to Be Filed. Every executor or administrator within thirty (30) days after the issuance to him of letters testamentary or of administration, or within such further time as the U. S. Commissioner and ex-officio probate judge may allow, shall forward by registered mail to the Tax Commissioner of the State of Alaska, a full, true and correct copy of his inventory of all of the property of the decedent's estate which has come into his possession or knowledge, together with the appraisal thereof made in pursuance of the laws regarding the inventory and appraisal of estates of deceased persons. Such appraisal, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, shall be deemed the value of the property so appraised as of the date of the death of the decedent.

The executor or administrator of every decedent whose estate may be subject to the federal estate tax shall file with the Tax Commissioner within 15 months after the death of such decedent, one copy of the federal estate tax return and inventory, and in like manner, one copy of all supplemental or amended returns and inventories filed with the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the United States.

Such executor or administrator shall also file with the Tax Commissioner a copy of the corrected inventory and appraisal of the estate and the total amount of federal estate tax thereon, as finally determined by the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the United States.

Sec. 2. This Act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval, or upon its becoming law without such approval.
