

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. The Commissioner of Public Safety may appoint as special officers duly qualified police officers of the federal, state or local government units or other persons with adequate police training or background over the age of 21 years, as he deems necessary, and without remuneration to aid and assist the Division of State Police in the enforcement of the criminal statutes of the state.

Sec. 2. Persons appointed as special officers under this Act are authorized and empowered, in whole or in part, to prevent crime, pursue and apprehend offenders, obtain legal evidence, institute criminal proceedings, execute any lawful warrant of arrest or search and seizure, or execute any other criminal process issuing from any court of the state. They may make arrests in the same manner as the members of the Division of State Police. The authority and duties conferred by this Act may be exercised in each case only within geographical limits to be determined by the Commissioner of Public Safety and special officers shall serve at the will of the Commissioner. Appointments shall be of limited duration.

Sec. 3. Special officers shall carry identification issued by the Commissioner of Public Safety. They shall carry firearms openly or concealed as the Commissioner of Public Safety may require. Each person appointed as a special officer under this Act shall take the constitutional oath of office before entering upon the performance of his duties. Any person so appointed by the Commissioner of Public Safety may hold other employment, public or otherwise.

Sec. 4. The Commissioner of Public Safety shall provide insurance against accidental death or injury for special officers appointed under this Act to the extent of $25,000.00 for death and $15,000.00 for maximum accident expense.

Sec. 5. Effective Date. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 1961.

Approved April 17, 1961

AN ACT

Relating to the regulation of civil aeronautics in Alaska; amending Sec. 8, Ch. 161, SLA 1960; and providing for an effective date.

(C.S.H.B. 175)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Sec. 8, Ch. 161, SLA 1960 is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 8. Temporary Exemption of Air Carriers. From time to time when an emergency requires, the commission may exempt from the requirements of this Act or any provision thereof, or any rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation prescribed thereunder, any air carrier or class of air carriers, if the commission finds that the enforcement of this Act or such provision, or such rule, regulation, term, condition or limitation is or would be an undue burden on such air carrier or class of air carriers by reason of the emergency, or unusual circumstances affecting the operation of such air carrier or class or air carriers, and is not in the public interest. The commission shall issue any regulation or order for a temporary exemption pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act; provided that an order need not be of general applicability and provided that a finding of emergency as required by Sec. 2 (2), Art. IV, Ch. 1, Ch. 143, SLA 1959 need not be first made as a condition to issuing an emergency regulation or order.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.
