CHAPTER 120

AN ACT

Relating to licensing and control of dogs outside municipalities and certain villages; and providing for an effective date.

(S.C.S.H.B. 433)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. The provisions of any dog control ordinance enacted by a city of any class or any village, whether incorporated or not, shall be imposed in the total area within 20 miles of the limits of that city or village. In the event a given area lies within 20 miles of two or more cities or villages with conflicting dog control ordinances, the provisions of the dog control ordinance of the city having the largest population shall prevail as to that overlapping area.

Sec. 2. The owner of a dog not licensed by a municipality or other political subdivision of the state shall pay a registration fee of one dollar to the Department of Revenue and in return shall receive from the department a metal tag stamped with a number. The number shall correspond with the name of the owner and shall be entered in a registration book kept for that purpose by the department. The owner of the dog shall affix the metal tag to a collar on the dog so registered, and any dog running at large without such a collar and tag shall be deemed without an owner and may be destroyed by a peace officer.

Sec. 3. The provisions of the dog control ordinance of the city or village as to control, impounding, or destruction of dogs may be enforced in the area outside the city or village limits by the state police under contract with the governing body of the city or village. No officer of the state may be civilly liable for the destruction of a dog pursuant to provisions of this Act.

Sec. 4. Village councils duly elected by village residents are empowered to destroy loose dogs in the villages, whether these villages are incorporated or not.

Sec. 5. The Department of Public Safety may adopt regulations necessary to enforce this Act. The Department of Public Safety may designate special officers if special officers are necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 6. Any male or female dog used primarily for work purposes is exempted from this Act unless allowed to run at large.

Sec. 7. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

CHAPTER 121

AN ACT

Relating to a debt of the state; providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for the construction of academic and related facilities at the University of Alaska; providing for the submission to a vote of the qualified voters of the state of the proposition of whether or not such bonds may be issued for such purposes; and providing for an effective date.

(C.S.H.B. 460)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. For the purpose of paying all or part of the cost of acquiring, constructing, equipping, and making necessary capital improvements to academic and related facilities at the University of Alaska, general obligation bonds of the state in the principal sum of not to exceed $5,950,000 shall be issued and sold. The full faith, credit, and resources of the state shall be and are hereby pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, which bonds shall be issued under the provisions of the State Bonding Act of 1960. The legislature may provide additional sources of money for the payment of such principal and interest and this Act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method of payment. Such bonds shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed six percent per annum and shall mature in not to exceed 30 years from date of issue.

Sec. 2. The amounts of such bonds to be issued from time to time and the time or times of their issuance shall be fixed by the State Bond Committee (created by Ch. 175, SLA 1960), and the specific purposes for which they are to be issued shall be fixed by the governor. Such purposes shall be within the Capital Improvement Program for the state dated March 1962, and submitted by the governor to this session of the legislature.

Sec. 3. In the event the issuance of such bonds is authorized by the qualified voters of the state, the sum of $54,000 or so much thereof as shall be found necessary is authorized to be appropriated from the general fund of the state to carry out the provisions of this Act and to pay all expenses incident to the sale and issuance of the bonds authorized herein. The amounts expended from the appropriation authorized by this section shall be reimbursed to the general fund from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds authorized by this Act.

Sec. 4. In the event the issuance of such bonds is authorized by the qualified voters of the state, a special fund of the state to be known as the "University of Alaska Construction Fund" shall be created, into which shall be paid the proceeds of the sale of the bonds described in Sec. 1 of this Act except for accrued interest. There is hereby appropriated from the "University of Alaska Construction Fund" to the University of Alaska the sum of $5,950,000.

Sec. 5. In the event the issuance of such bonds is authorized by the qualified voters of the state, a special fund of the state to be known as the "University of Alaska General Obligation Bond Redemption Fund" shall be created, to the credit of which there shall be set aside such amounts of money as may be necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the outstanding bonds of the issue described in Sec. 1 of this Act, and which fund shall be used for the sole purpose of paying and securing the payment of such principal and interest as the same shall become due.

Sec. 6. The question of whether or not the bonds authorized herein shall be issued for the purposes herein provided shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state at the next state general election to be held on November 6, 1962, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution and laws of the state. The secretary of state shall fix the ballot title to be submitted to the qualified voters for their ratification of the state debt authorized by this Act, and shall do everything else necessary to place such proposition before said qualified voters at said next state general election.

Sec. 7. The proposition to be submitted to the qualified voters at said election shall read substantially as follows:

Proposition

State General Obligation University of Alaska Construction Bonds
$5,950,000

Shall the State of Alaska issue its general obligation bonds in the principal sum of not to exceed $5,950,000 bearing interest not to exceed six percent per annum and maturing in not to exceed 30 years from date of issue for the purpose of paying all or part of the cost of acquiring, constructing, equipping, and making necessary capital improvements to the academic and related facilities of the University of Alaska?

Bonds yes
Bonds no

Sec. 8. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

CHAPTER 122

AN ACT

Relating to a debt of the state; providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring, constructing, equipping, and improving certain elementary and secondary public schools within the state as provided in the Capital Improvement Program for the state dated March 1962; providing for the submission to a vote of the qualified voters of the state of the proposition of whether or not such bonds may be issued for such purposes; and providing for an effective date.

(C.S.H.B. 461)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. For the purpose of paying part or all of the cost of acquiring, constructing, and equipping elementary and secondary public schools to be operated by the state at various locations throughout the state and for acquiring, constructing, equipping, and making necessary capital improvements to existing state-operated elementary and secondary public schools throughout the state, and, in accordance with the Capital Improvement Program as specified in Section 2, general obligation bonds of the state in the principal sum of not to exceed $5,000,000 shall be issued and sold. The full faith, credit, and resources of the state shall be and are hereby pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds, which bonds shall be issued under the provisions of the State Bonding Act of 1960. The legislature may provide additional sources of money for the payment of such principal and interest, and this Act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method of payment. Such bonds shall bear interest at a rate of not to exceed six percent per annum and shall mature in not to exceed 30 years from date of issue.

Sec. 2. The amounts of such bonds to be issued from time to time and the time or times of their issuance shall be fixed by the State Bond Committee (created by Ch. 175, SLA 1960), and the specific purposes for which they are to be issued shall be fixed by the governor. Such purposes shall be within the Capital Improvement Program for the state dated March 1962, and submitted by the governor to this session of the legislature. All schools within the Capital Improvement Program shall be considered state-operated schools for the purposes of this Act, whether or not the areas in which these schools are located are included within the boundaries of an organized borough.

Sec. 3. In the event the issuance of such bonds is authorized by the qualified voters of the state, the sum of $37,500 or so much thereof as shall be found necessary is authorized to be appropriated from the general fund of the state to carry out the provisions of this Act and to pay all expenses incident to the sale and issuance of the bonds authorized herein. The amounts expended from the appropriation authorized by this section shall be reimbursed to the general fund from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds authorized by this Act.

Sec. 4. In the event the issuance of such bonds is authorized by the qualified voters of the state, a special fund of the state to be known as the "School Construction Fund" shall be created, into which shall be paid the proceeds of the sale of the bonds described in Section 1 of this Act except for accrued interest. There is hereby appropriated from the "School Construction Fund" to the Department of Education the sum of $5,000,000.
