CHAPTER 50

AN ACT

Relating to the re-employment of veterans by the state and its political subdivisions; incorporating a portion of the Universal Military Training and Service Act; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 374)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Sec. 44-2-1, ACLA 1949, is amended to read:

Sec. 44-2-1. Extension of Universal Military Training and Service Act Provisions to Alaska Employees. Section 9 of the Universal Military Training and Service Act, as amended, 50 USC sec. 459, is hereby extended to the State of Alaska and its political subdivisions, it being the intent of this Act that all re-employment benefits granted by Section 9 of the Universal Military Training and Service Act to any veteran who was in the employ of a private employer at the time of his induction into the armed forces of the United States shall, in the same manner and to the same extent, be granted to any veteran who was in the employ of the State of Alaska or any political subdivision thereof at the time of his induction into the armed forces of the United States. As used in this section, "veteran" means any person subject to the Universal Military Training and Service Act.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 3, 1962

CHAPTER 51

AN ACT

Providing for the definition and punishment of aiding escape from confinement; amending Ch. 108, SLA 1957; repealing Sec. 65-7-8, ACLA 1949; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 394)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Ch. 108, SLA 1957, is amended to add a new Section 2A to read:

Sec. 2A. Whoever conveys into or about the yard or grounds of any jail or institution any disguise, material, instrument, tool, weapon, or other thing adapted to or useful in aiding any person or prisoner there committed or detained to escape, with intent to effect or facilitate the escape of such person or prisoner, or by any means whatever aids or assists any such person or prisoner in an attempt to escape, whether such escape be effected or attempted or not, shall upon conviction thereof be punished as provided in Section 2 of this Act, depending upon whether the custody or confinement of the person intended to be aided is by virtue of extradition or arrest, charge of, or conviction of felony or misdemeanor as therein specified.

Sec. 2. Sec. 65-7-8, ACLA 1949, is repealed.

Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 3, 1962

CHAPTER 52

AN ACT

Relating to the Alaska State Development Corporation; amending Ch. 135, SLA 1961; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 290)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. The title to Article I, Ch. 135, SLA 1961, is amended to read:

Article I

Creation and Organization

Sec. 2. Sec. 2, Art. I, Ch. 135, SLA 1961, is amended to read:

Section 1. Alaska State Development Corporation. The Alaska state development corporation is a public corporation of the state. The corporation is an instrumentality of the state within the Department of Commerce, but has a legal existence independent of and separate from the state.

Sec. 3. Subsec. a, Sec. 3, Art. I, Ch. 135, SLA 1961, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. Board of Directors Governing Body. The corporation board of directors shall conduct the business of the corporation.

Sec. 4. Subsec. b, Sec. 3, Art. I, Ch. 135, SLA 1961, is amended to read:

Sec. 3. Appointment and Composition of Board. (a) The board consists of the commissioner of commerce and six residents of the state. Members of the board are appointed by the governor and they serve at his pleasure. Membership on the board is on a nonpartisan basis with due regard to representation from all areas of the state. At least one member shall be appointed from each major senate district if, in the opinion of the governor, a qualified person resides in the district. One-half of the appointed members must be active in the banking business and the other half must be from the other professions, but shall have extensive knowledge of financial matters.

(b) The appointment of members to the board must be confirmed by the legislature meeting in joint session. A member may act and receive compensation from his appointment until his confirmation or rejection by the legislature.

(c) A public employee is not eligible for appointment to the board.

Sec. 5. Subsec. c, Sec. 3, Art. I, Ch. 135, SLA 1961, is amended to read:
