AN ACT

Relating to banking interest of department officers and employees.

(S.B. 316)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. AS 06.05.065 is repealed and re-enacted to read:

Sec. 06.05.065. Banking Interest of Department Officers and Employees.

(a) No officer or employee of the Department of Commerce who deals with the regulation of lending institutions, or special agent selected by the department to do work relating to lending institutions may be an officer, employee, director, trustee, attorney, stockholder, or partner of a lending institution, or receive directly or indirectly a payment or gratuity from a lending institution. No person subject to this section may borrow money from a lending institution except as provided in this statute.

(b) A person subject to this section may

(1) be a depositor in a lending institution;

(2) purchase shares of a savings and loan association on the same terms available to the public generally;

(3) be a member of an employee credit union;

(4) obtain a loan by the assignment of a deposit in a lending institution;

(5) obtain a personal loan from a lending institution up to the amount of $2,500 for reasons and upon terms that loans are given to the public generally; and

(6) be indebted to a lending institution upon

(A) a mortgage loan upon the mortgagor's real property; or

(B) an installment debt transferred to the lending institution in the regular course of business by a seller of household goods or automobiles purchased by the employee; or

(C) an installment debt or loan for automobiles or household goods obtained from the lending institution in the regular course of business.

(c) Each officer and employee in the division shall notify the governor when he is or may be involved in transactions under this section.

(d) This section does not limit the authority of an officer or employee of the department acting in his official capacity in the business of the department.

(e) When used in this section, the term "lending institution" means a bank, savings institution, industrial bank, savings and loan association, foreign banking corporation or institution, bank holding company, or other institution doing banking business in the State of Alaska.

(f) An officer or employee who violates this section must be dismissed. A nonexempt employee dismissed under this section may appeal his dismissal under the state personnel act.

(g) An officer or employee who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, is punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both.

CHAPTER 87

AN ACT

An emergency Act relating to excise taxes on intoxicating liquors; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 431)

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Emergency Excise Tax Credit on Intoxicating Liquors. A wholesaler or jobber of intoxicating liquors having a state license to do business on March 27, 1964, is entitled to a credit for excise taxes paid or due the state on intoxicating liquors which were lost, destroyed, rendered unmarketable, or condemned by reason of the natural disaster occurring on March 27, 1964, if at the time of the disaster such products were being held for sale by the claimant, and further that the claimant was not indemnified by a valid claim of insurance or otherwise in respect to the tax on the liquors covered by the claim.

Sec. 2. Procedure for Obtaining Tax Credit. To obtain the excise tax credit provided for in this Act, the claimant, no later than 30 days after the effective date of this Act, shall file with the Department of Revenue a verified claim in the manner and form required by the department. Upon receipt of a claim properly filed, the department shall promptly allow credit to the account of, and issue a notice showing the amount of credit allowed to the claimant, for the full amount of the excise taxes paid or due the state on the intoxicating liquors designated in sec. 1 of this Act.

Sec. 3. False Claims. A person who, in making and subscribing a claim for tax credit authorized by this Act, wilfully falsifies any material matter set forth in the claim is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction is subject to the penalties prescribed for perjury under the laws of the state. In this section "person" includes an officer, agent, or employee of a corporation.

Sec. 4. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.
