HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 1

Relating to the establishment of local historical museums.

Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

WHEREAS the abundant historical assets of the state are distinctive from those of all other states and are the subject of world-wide interest and renown; and

WHEREAS the preservation of historical documents, publications, totem poles, artifacts, and other treasures of Alaskan culture is of vital concern in promoting and sustaining tourism and its resultant economic benefits for the state; and

WHEREAS the establishment by cities of local historical museums will serve to preserve these assets and promote tourism within localities of the state; and

WHEREAS, under AS 41.25, tourist attraction development matching money may be obtained by cities from the state for the purpose of developing tourist attractions of historical or contemporary interest;

BE IT RESOLVED that the governing bodies of incorporated cities are strongly urged to avail themselves of tourist attraction development matching money for the establishment of local historical museums; and be it FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to the chief executives of incorporated cities and to the Commissioner of Commerce of the State of Alaska.

Passed by the House February 3, 1964.

Passed by the Senate February 6, 1964.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4

Relating to the late Harry G. Watson.

Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS the Legislature has learned with sorrow of the passing of Harry G. Watson; and

WHEREAS Harry Watson had a distinguished record of service in the territorial government and in federal service; and

WHEREAS he served as a member of the Territorial Legislature during the 1925 session and in the capacity of secretary to three territorial governors; and

WHEREAS, during his 50 years of residence in Alaska, Harry Watson, with Mrs. Watson, has typified the best in public service which characterizes pioneer Alaskans;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature joins with the people of Alaska in honoring the memory of the late Harry G. Watson and in expressing sympathy to his wife, Lillian, and to the other members of his family.
