

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 7

Relating to construction of a breakwater at Kake to protect the small boat harbor.

Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives Concurring:

WHEREAS, in addition to vessels which are moored at the city of Kake the year round, a considerably larger fishing fleet must be accommodated during the height of the fishing season; and

WHEREAS the city of Kake has a harbor facility which does not provide a safe harbor for even the permanent fleet; and

WHEREAS the weather conditions and heavy seas do considerable damage to the boats moored at the small boat harbor; and

WHEREAS, with installation of a breakwater, favorable conditions for boat moorage would exist;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Corps of

Engineers, U. E. Army, is respectfully urged to program the necessary surveys for the construction of a breakwater to protect the small boat harbor at Kake and report its findings and recommendations to Congress at the earliest opportunity in order that construction funds can be appropriated; and be it FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to the Honorable Pat McNamara, Chairman, Senate Public Works Committee; the Honorable Charles A. Buckley, Chairman, House of Representatives Public Works Committee; Lt. General W. K. Wilson, Chief of Engineers, U. S. Army; Colonel Kenneth T. Sawyer, District Engineer, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army; and the members of the Alaska delegation in Congress.

Passed by the Senate February 14, 1963.

Passed by the House February 22, 1963.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8

Relating to the naming of the new vocational education school at Nome in honor of the late Senator William E. Beltz.

Be It Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives Concurring:

WHEREAS the people of Alaska have approved the construction of a regional vocational education school at Nome to serve the youth of far westward Alaska; and

WHEREAS one of the many people who strove over the years for this educational opportunity for the youth of that area was the late William E. Beltz, a Native of the region; and

WHEREAS William E. Beltz was a distinguished citizen of the state and served ably in the Territorial Legislature and as the President of the Senate in the First State Legislature;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Governor is respectfully requested to join with the Legislature in honoring the memory of a distinguished fellow citizen and colleague by announcing at an early date the naming of the vocational education school planned for Nome in honor of the late Senator William E. Beltz.
