Chapter No.:

HB 287

111

AN ACT

Relating to the extension of base periods for employment security benefits; establishing a limitation on the amount of benefits; and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 23.20 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 23.20.376. BASE PERIOD EXTENSION AND LIMITATION. (a)

If the department finds that during his base period an individual has been incapable of work during the greater part of his working time in a calendar quarter, the base period shall be extended a calendar quarter subject to the limitation set out in (b) of this section. The extension of an individual's base period may not exceed four calendar quarters.

(b) The maximum benefits payable as a result of the use of wages earned in a calendar quarter before the individual's current base period as defined in sec. 520(2) of this chapter shall be reduced by the amount of benefits paid previously as a result of the use of wages in computing a previous benefit determination.

* Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved by Governor April 16, 1966
Actual effective date: April 17, 1966
