

geographical location which works financial hardship, extended loss of time, or arduous and costly travel upon residents needing dental care.

(b) The Department of Health and Welfare may issue an annual permit authorizing the treatment of residents in an area designated under (a) of this section, who are not entitled to dental care by the state or federal government, by a dentist employed by the United States Public Health Service who serves in that area.

Sec. 2. AS 08.36.350 is amended by adding a new paragraph to read:

(6) dentists in the employ of the United States Public Health Service providing care by authority of a permit issued under sec. 271 of this chapter.

Sec. 3. AS 08.64 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 08.64.368. Permits for Isolated Areas. (a) The Department of Health and Welfare shall designate as isolated areas those specific places and regions remote from major population centers which are not served by physicians licensed under this chapter and which have a geographical location which works financial hardship, extended loss of time, or arduous and costly travel upon residents needing medical care.

(b) The Department of Health and Welfare may issue an annual permit authorizing the treatment of residents in an area designated under (a) of this section, who are not entitled to medical care by the state or federal government, by a physician employed by the United States Public Health Service who serves in that area.

Sec. 4. AS 08.64.370 is amended by adding a new paragraph to read:

(4) physicians in the regular medical service of the United States Public Health Service providing care by authority of a permit issued under sec. 368 of this chapter.

Sec. 5. AS 08.36.270 is repealed.

CHAPTER 94

AN ACT

Relating to common law dower and curtesy; and providing for an effective date.

(H.B. 257)

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Purpose. The legislature wishes to make it explicit that it did not revive the rights of common law dower or curtesy by repealing AS 13.35 in 1963 (sec. 30, ch. 38, SLA 1963). The provisions of ch. 38, SLA 1963, are statutory substitutes for those common law rights just as a portion of AS 13.35 contained a statutory substitute for common law dower.

Sec. 2. AS 13.40 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 13.40.060. Common Law Dower and Curtesy. There is no right to common law dower or curtesy in this state.

Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved April 22, 1965

CHAPTER 95

AN ACT

To prohibit state or state-supported agencies from requesting certain information about prospective employees.

(S.B. 52)

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. AS 39.05 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Article 4. Application for Employment.

Sec. 39.05.150. Information not to be requested of or Volunteered by Applicant for state Employment. No state agency or agency supported in whole or in part by state funds may request or suggest that an applicant for employment with that agency provide information concerning the applicant's religious opinions, his ancestry, his race, or his membership in fraternal organizations.

Approved May 1, 1965

 CHAPTER 96

AN ACT

Designating the sites for the buildings to be constructed for and used by the Youth and Adult Authority and the Department of Health and Welfare under ch. 118, SLA 1964; and providing for an effective date.

(S.B. 74)

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. Site Designation. Under provisions of sec. 1, ch. 118, SLA 1964 (Bonding Proposition No. 2, as approved by the voters of the state on November 3, 1964), the legislature directs that a jail facility be constructed at Fairbanks and a juvenile detention and treatment facility be constructed at Anchorage. Approximately $2,000,000 may be used for the Fairbanks facility and the balance of the authorized $5,000,000 or so much as may be needed and available, may be used for the facility at Anchorage. The governor shall make the specific site and expenditure determinations consistent with this section.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without such approval.

Approved May 1, 1965

 CHAPTER 97

AN ACT

Relating to land preference rights to persons for agricultural purposes.

(H.C.S.S.B. 80)

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Alaska:

Section 1. AS 38.05 is amended by adding a new section to read.

Sec. 38.05.069 Preference to Persons for Agricultural Purposes. (a) If the director determines that the highest and best use of unoccupied land is for agricultural purposes, he shall grant to an Alaskan resident owning and using or leasing and using land for agricultural purposes a 60-day first option from the date the land becomes available to the public or 90 days from the effective date of this section, whichever is later, to purchase or lease unoccupied land situated adjacent to or in the approximate vicinity of his presently held land; provided the aggregate number of acres owned and acquired under the option shall not exceed 640 acres; and further provided that the land acquired under this section is used for agricultural purposes for at least one
