

(5) the desirability of increasing the annual average number of days taught and the resulting effect on teacher-administrator salaries;

(6) the salaries of professional staff members in the Department of Education; and

(7) any other facets of teacher-administrator compensation which would be of use in making legislative determinations; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Council consult with the Department of Education and invite the participation of education and other groups and qualified individuals in developing the information for its report and recommendations.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 27

Directing the Legislative Council to prepare a comprehensive revision of the school laws of the state.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS a proposed revision of the education laws of the state has been submitted to the Legislature as House Bill No. 12, "An Act revising AS 14, Education"; and

WHEREAS House Bill No. 12 is not a complete revision of the school laws and leaves many unresolved problems in the laws; and

WHEREAS the subject of the bill is broad in scope and effect; and

WHEREAS other legislation dealing with many problems related to education has been submitted to the Legislature;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislative Council is directed to draft an extensive and thorough revision of Title 14, making use of information gained from House Bill No. 12 and related bills, records of public hearings on House Bill No. 12 and related bills, the Department of Education, the Alaska State Board of Education, professional educators' groups, other state departments and agencies, and any other source which may be of assistance; and be it FURTHER RESOLVED that a proposed revision of Title 14 be completed and presented to the Legislature for its consideration in January, 1966.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 29

Directing a report on local government consumer sales taxes.

Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate Concurring:

WHEREAS with the advent of borough government the incidence of the consumer sales tax has become generally universal in all developed areas of the state; and

WHEREAS the lack of uniformity and the variations of incidence and rates along with the competition between borough and city governments for tax revenue has compounded the confusion for the taxpayer, business and government; and

WHEREAS the Legislature is without the full information on the consumer sales tax situation needed to legislate in the public interest;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislative Council is directed to make a comprehensive study of the consumer sales taxes levied by local governments, report to the Legislature on prevailing rates, incidence, exemptions, overlapping and other aspects of the consumer sales taxes as they apply to sales of goods, services and rentals, and submit with its report suggested legislation to bring an element of uniformity to the consumer sales tax among local governments throughout the state.
