BY THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 28

IN THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

FOURTH LEGISLATURE - SECOND SESSION

Directing a study of tax credits for capital improvements.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

WHEREAS the state has a vital interest in the development and growth of basic industries in Alaska; and

WHEREAS the development and growth of basic industries and the economic posture of the state are dependent to a large degree on the equity and productivity of taxes on business;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislative Council is directed to explore the use of tax credits for capital improvements by basic industries and report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature in 1967.
