AN ACT

Granting emergency urban renewal and redevelopment authority to certain municipal entities; and providing for an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 07.15 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 07.15.735. EMERGENCY DISASTER POWERS. (a) A second class borough or first or second class city which is wholly or partially within an area which is declared by the President to be a disaster area may participate in and provide for housing and urban renewal and redevelopment in the same manner as a home rule city, provided that the exercise of these powers by a borough are limited to the area outside any city in the borough.

(b) A borough may exercise the powers for a housing or urban renewal and redevelopment project transferred to it by a city located in the borough as provided by sec. 910 of this chapter.

(c) Secs. 720 - 800 of this chapter are not applicable to the housing and urban renewal and redevelopment powers granted by this section.

(d) Powers granted by this section must be initiated within a period of not more than one year from the date of declaration of a natural disaster by the President, but these powers may be extended for an additional period of not more than one year if an extension is approved by a majority of the qualified voters. The powers granted by this section are subject to initiative and referendum.

* Sec. 2. AS 18.55.932 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

Chapter 16

(g) The provisions of this section apply whenever an area has been declared by the President of the United States to be a disaster area and the legal governing body certifies that the need of the area for redevelopment or urban renewal has been substantially increased as a result of the natural disaster and all results and after-effects respecting which the governor has also certified the need for disaster assistance.

* Sec. 3. This Act takes effect on the day after its passage and approval or on the day it becomes law without approval.
