Chapter No.

183

AN ACT

Relating to work furloughs for prisoners.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 33.30.250(a) is amended to read:

(a) When a person is convicted of a crime and is sentenced to a prison facility, or is imprisoned in the prison facility for nonpayment of a fine, for contempt, or as a condition of probation for a criminal offense, the commissioner may, if he concludes that the person is a fit subject for a work furlough and is not prohibited from it under (g) of this section, direct that the person be permitted to continue in his regular employment, if that is compatible with the requirements of (c) of this section, or may authorize the person to secure employment for himself, unless the court at the time of sentencing has ordered that the person not be granted work furloughs.

* Sec. 2. AS 33.30.250 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(g) A work furlough may not be authorized for a prisoner

(1) identified with large-scale, organized criminal activity;

(2) serving a sentence for a violent crime;

(3) with serious emotional or personality problems, as determined by the commissioner;

(4) with a history of violent or assaultive behavior;

(5) not in good health;

(6) addicted to the use of drugs; or

(7) whose presence in the community is likely to evoke adverse public reaction toward the inmate, the institution and the state.
