HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 7

Commending the staff of the Alaska State Library.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

WHEREAS, during the First Session of the Eighth Alaska Legislature, the Alaska State Library in the capitol has been called upon to respond to numerous requests by legislators and staff for information, documents, periodicals, books and other services; and

WHEREAS the library staff, under the direction of the Director of the Division of Libraries, Richard B. Engen, invariably has responded with alacrity, courtesy and professional thoroughness; and

WHEREAS, without the reference service made available by the state library staff, it would be impossible for the legislature and its members to function effectively;

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Alaska State Legislature that it warmly commends and extends a vote of appreciation to the staff of the Alaska State Library and to its director, Dick Engen, for their helpfulness and thoughtful, professional courtesy during the First Session of the Eighth Alaska Legislature.
