HR 11

House
Resolve No.

8

Honoring Martin Severson of Naknek on the date of his departure.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

In the history of the State of Alaska, Martin Severson has the distinction of being the only person appointed to fill a temporary vacancy in the Legislature.

As today marks the end of the Honorable Martin Severson's service in the Alaska Legislature, the House feels it is incumbent upon itself to express its gratitude and appreciation to the Representative from South Naknek for his service to the state.

At considerable personal sacrifice and short notice, Martin Severson accepted the temporary appointment to represent his District and was instrumental in calming the troubled waters of a difficult situation. He accepted this responsibility, began to work immediately, represented his District well, and, in doing so, earned the respect of his peers.

So then, the House of Representatives, with profound regret, bids farewell to an esteemed colleague, respected legislator and fine friend, and does, from this day forth, extend to him the privilege of the floor.
