Honoring Keith Specking.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS Keith Specking has resigned from the legislature to accept appointment by the governor as special consultant to the Department of Fish and Game; and

WHEREAS Representative Specking's untiring and devoted service to the State of Alaska as a member of the House of Representatives since January 1971 has produced an admirable record of legislation in the best interest of the state; and

WHEREAS Keith has been the driving force behind legislation to improve the game and guiding laws, provide safety standards for oil tankers, and provide for orderly and rational development of the state's natural resources, particularly oil and gas; and

WHEREAS, in addition to initiating legislation in key areas, Keith is well known for his stabilizing and moderating influence during times of stress and conflict; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his legislative accomplishments and leadership ability, Keith was chosen to be House minority leader for both sessions of the Ninth Legislature; and

WHEREAS, in further recognition of his legislative background, sound judgment and natural resource expertise, Keith serves as the House member on the Commission on the Conference on the Law of the Sea, as an advisor to the North Pacific Fisheries Management Council, an advisor to the International North Pacific Fishery Commission, and as a member of the Alaska Fisheries Council; and

WHEREAS Alaska has been most fortunate to have a public servant of Keith's caliber working in its behalf;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature recognizes the many accomplishments and contributions of Keith Specking, and wishes to honor him by expressing its sincere appreciation for his legislative work to make Alaska a better state; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislature offers its best wishes to Keith for every continued success in his new position.
