LETTER OF INTENT FOR CSSB 164

"This legislation is designed to increase protection for Alaskan fishermen who are left unpaid by fish processors or primary fish buyers. To help ensure that fishermen throughout the state receive the maximum benefit from this program, it is important that fishermen are made aware of how the program works.

The Resources Committee requests the Department of Labor to work closely with the Office of Commercial Fisheries Development in the development of an educational program for the surety bond program. These agencies should work with the Commercial Fisheries Entry Commission, Alaska Marine Advisory Program, commercial fishermen's organizations, Native groups, fish and game advisory committees, and the news media to educate as many fishermen as possible."
