Resolve No.

1

Dedicating the First Session of the Fifteenth Alaska State Legislature to Senators Bob Ziegler, Bill Ray, John Sackett, and Frank Ferguson.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE:

WHEREAS the presence of Senators Bob Ziegler, Bill Ray, John Sackett, and Frank Ferguson will be sorely missed by the Senate during the Fifteenth Alaska State Legislature; and

WHEREAS these senators have a combined experience in the legislature of 80 years; and

WHEREAS Senator Bob Ziegler accumulated 24 years of experience in the legislature and will always be appreciated for his constant efforts to preserve the integrity of the legislative process as well as the flow and harmony of legislative language; and

WHEREAS Senator Bill Ray accumulated 22 years of experience in the legislature, which gave him an invaluable perspective on its history and a commitment to the legislative process which has led his peers to often view him as the "conscience of the legislature"; and

WHEREAS Senator John Sackett accumulated 18 years of experience in the legislature and a depth of knowledge that cannot be replaced, particularly concerning budget matters; he helped ensure that our society maintains both a clear view of its future and an appreciation of its past; and

WHEREAS Senator Frank Ferguson accumulated 16 years of experience in the legislature and was known for being a great compromiser, a facilitator, and a champion of causes, so that his efforts have enhanced the quality of life of every Alaskan;

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate that the First Session of the Fifteenth Alaska State Legislature is dedicated to Senators Bob Ziegler, Bill Ray, John Sackett, and Frank Ferguson to honor their contributions to the Senate and their 80 collective years of legislative experience, and to acknowledge the conviction that their legacy is a vital part of the foundation of this body.
