Relating to the 50th anniversary of the Alaska/Siberia lend-lease program.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS the United States and the Soviet Union cooperated to airlift supplies and aircraft as part of the Allied war effort during World War II in a program known as the lend-lease program that resulted in the delivery of nearly 8,000 United States combat and transport aircraft to Soviet Union pilots in eastern Siberia; and

WHEREAS Alaska played a key role in the lend-lease program effort because President Roosevelt selected Ladd Field, now known as Fort Wainwright, in Fairbanks as the point for transferring the aircraft to Soviet Union flight crews; and

WHEREAS the 7th Ferry Group of the Air Transport Command of Great Falls, Montana, organized and operated an aircraft ferry route that connected Great Falls, Edmonton, Fort St. John, Watson Lake, Whitehorse, and Fairbanks; and

WHEREAS the lend-lease program was literally a lifesaver for thousands of Soviet Union citizens, and the program helped cement the longstanding relationship between the residents of Alaska and their neighbors to the West; and

WHEREAS, in June 1990, 27 Soviet Union World War II lend-lease program pilots and

21 other Soviet Union dignitaries visited Alaska to promote goodwill between the people of Alaska and the Soviet Union; and

WHEREAS a delegation of United States lend-lease program pilots plans to visit the Soviet Union in July 1991 to plan for the program's 50th anniversary, which is scheduled for June 1992 in Alaska; and

WHEREAS the anniversary celebration will be organized by the Alaska/Siberia Lend-Lease Reunion, which is a nonprofit veterans' corporation organized under Alaska law to promote world peace through better relations between the East and the West and to encourage travel between the United States and the Soviet Union; and

WHEREAS the 1992 anniversary celebration promises to be of great historical significance for both the United States and the Soviet Union and a time of celebration for residents of Alaska, with functions scheduled in Nome, Fairbanks, and Anchorage that are likely to attract visitors to Alaska;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature commends the volunteers and sponsors who made the 1990 visit possible, as well as those volunteers and sponsors involved in the 1991 trip to the Soviet Union and in the 1992 anniversary celebration, and encourages businesses, private citizens, and civic groups in Alaska to support the 50th anniversary celebration of the Alaska/Siberia Union lend-lease program.

COPIES of this resolution shall be sent to the Alaska/Siberia Lend-Lease Reunion and to the United States and Soviet Union sponsors of the 50th anniversary celebration of the Alaska/Siberia lend-lease program.
