LETTERS OF DISCLOSURE

as required by AS 24.60

TO: J.C. Shine, Chief Clerk
Alaska House of Representatives

FROM: Rep. David Finkelstein, 1992 Chair
Select Committee on Legislative Ethics

DATE: January 11, 1993

SUBJECT: Legislative ethics law disclosures

The legislative ethics law requires that certain disclosure statements be published in the House and Senate Journals. Legislators and legislative employees submit their disclosure statements to the Ethics Committee, which regularly sends copies to you and the Senate Secretary for publication. The disclosures are usually printed in a journal supplement.

Enclosed are the disclosure statements I received as chair of the Select Committee on Legislative Ethics during the 1992 interim. Please publish them in the House Journal.

If you have questions, please call Terry Cramer at Legal Services (465-2450).

TO: Kris Gray

FROM: Representative David Finkelstein

DATE: June 12, 1992

RE: Notice of Disclosure

Pursuant to AS 24.60.080(d), I am disclosing a gift of travel primarily for the purpose of obtaining information on a matter of legislative concern.

On June 8, I traveled to Prince William Sound to examine oil-impacted beaches. The Coast Guard and the Department of Environmental Conservation chartered a helicopter to fly a number of legislators to Prince William Sound. The approximate cost of travel was $300.
