MEMORANDUM

TO: J. C. Shine
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

FROM: Melinda Godshalk Gruening

DATE: February 26, 1993

RE: Disclosure of close economic association

I am hereby disclosing the maintenance of a close economic association with Senator Loren Leman. Senator Leman and his family rent a home from me at 428 W. 12th street. This rental will terminate at the close of the legislative session.

I am also disclosing the maintenance of a close economic association with my husband, Clark S. Gruening, a registered lobbyist.

FROM: Representative Cliff Davidson

DATE: October 28, 1992

SUBJECT: Disclosure of Gift of Travel

In accordance with AS 24.60.080(d) I would like to report a gift of travel for the purposes of obtaining information on matters of legislative concern.

On August 26-27, 1992 I traveled from Kodiak to Afognak Island to tour logging operations and land holdings of native corporations with a party of Congressional staff. The transportation and meals were provided by Afognak Native Corporation. The total cost of the trip was in excess of $100.

MEMORANDUM

DATE : 08 March 1993
TO : J. C. Shine, Chief Clerk
FROM : Rep. Richard Foster RF
SUBJECT: Ethics Law Disclosure

In accordance with the reporting requirement of the current Legislative Ethics law AS 24.60.080 I am writing to confirm that I received a gift of transportation between Anchorage and Prudhoe Bay exceeding $100.00 from ARCO. I was invited to be part of the "Fact-finding trip regarding sewer/water and fuel storage facilities at Kuparuk". This trip was made March 5-7, 1993.
