

SENATE JOURNAL SUPPLEMENT

January 19, 1993

Tuesday

No. 1

DISCLOSURE LETTERS

Pursuant to AS 24.60

1/19/93

SENATE JOURNAL SUPPLEMENT

No. 1

TO: Nancy Quinto, Secretary
Alaska Senate

FROM: Rep. David Finkelstein, 1992 Chair
Select Committee on Legislative Ethics

DATE: January 11, 1993

SUBJECT: Legislative ethics law disclosures

As you know, the legislative ethics law requires that certain disclosure statements be published in the House and Senate Journals. Beginning this session, legislators and legislative employees will no longer submit their disclosure statements directly to you. Instead, they will send their statements to the Ethics Committee which will regularly give copies to you and the Chief Clerk for publication.

Enclosed are the disclosure statements I received as chair of the Select Committee on Legislative Ethics during the 1992 interim. Please publish them in the Senate Journal.

If you have questions, please call Terry Cramer at Legal Services (465-2450).

To: Representative David Finkelstein, Chairman
Select Committee on Legislative Ethics

From: Christopher Clark, ~~Aide~~
Senator Virginia Collins

Re: Disclosure of Gift of Travel

Date: September 21, 1992

In accordance with AS 24.60.080(d), I am reporting the acceptance of a gift of travel primarily for the purpose of obtaining information on matters of legislative concern.

On September 13, 1992, I traveled from Anchorage to Prudhoe Bay as a guest of British Petroleum (Alaska), Inc. in order to tour oil production facilities on the North Slope.

The value of the travel and food exceeded $100.

If you have any questions on this matter, you may reach me at 561-2040.

MEMORANDUM

September 21, 1992

TO: Representative David Finkelstein, Chairman
Select Committee on Ethics

FROM: Betty Hargrave^{BY}, Legislative Staff Assistant
Senator Arliss Sturgulewski's Office

RE: Disclosure of Gift of Travel

Pursuant to AS 24.60.080(d) I am hereby disclosing a gift of travel. On September 13, 1992 I was a guest of BP Exploration, Inc. on a National Conference of State Legislatures legislative staff tour of Prudhoe Bay. The purpose of the trip was to learn about the issues surrounding drilling in the Arctic environment. The value of this tour was approximately $250.

September 30, 1992

Representative David Finkelstein, Chair
Select Committee on Legislative Ethics
3111 "C" Street, Suite 465
Anchorage, AK 99503

Re: DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Dear Representative Finkelstein:

Pursuant to AS 24.60.080(d), I am disclosing a gift of travel in excess of $100 while attending the NCSL Leadership Staff Conference in Anchorage, September 13 - 16, 1992.

BP Exploration provided transportation from Anchorage to Deadhorse, Alaska, to view their facilities and the surrounding areas on September 13. The approximate value of this trip was $250.

Sincerely,

Jo-Eve R. Benedict
Legislative Assistant for
Senator Dick Eliason

September 30, 1992

Representative David Finkelstein, Chair
Select Committee on Legislative Ethics
3111 C Street, Suite 465
Anchorage, Alaska 99503

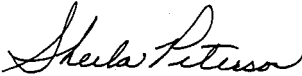

Dear Representative Finkelstein,

Pursuant to AS 24.60.080 (d), I would like to report the gift of travel in excess of $100.00 for the purpose of obtaining information on matters of legislative concern.

On September 13, 1992, BP Exploration provided transportation from Anchorage to Deadhorse, Alaska, to view its facilities and the surrounding area. The approximate value of this trip was $250.00.

If I can answer any questions, please let me know.

Sincerely,

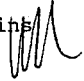

Sheila Peterson
Legislative Assistant
Office of Senator Dick Eliason

October 6, 1992

MEMORANDUM

TO: Representative David Finkelstein, Chair
Select Committee on Legislative Ethics

FROM: Senator Virginia Collins

SUBJECT: Letter of Disclosure

Pursuant to AS 24.60.070 (4), I am disclosing one week's rental of a condominium located in Hawaii owned by Mr. Gordon Evans a registered lobbyist.

October 4, 1992

Representative David Finkelstein, Chairperson
Select Committee on Legislative Ethics
3111 C Street, Suite 465
Anchorage, AK 99503

Dear Representative Finkelstein,

In accordance with AS 24.60.080 (d) I would like to report the gift of travel in excess of $100.00 for the purpose of obtaining information on matters of legislative concern.

On September 13, 1992 I travelled from Anchorage to Deadhorse, Alaska and toured oil development facilities in the area. The transportation for this trip had an approximate value of $250.00 and was provided by British Petroleum (BP) Alaska.

Sincerely,

Mary E. McDowell
Legislative Assistant
Office of Senate President Dick Eliason

November 3, 1992

The Honorable Virginia Collins
Chair
Senate Ethics Committee
3111 C Street, Suite 540
Anchorage, Alaska 99503

Dear Senator Collins:

I wish to disclose that while serving as the chairman of the Alaska Host Committee for the 1992 National Conference of State Legislatures Leadership Staff Seminar I accepted a gift of travel for legislative purposes from BP Exploration (Alaska) Inc.

On September 13, 1992, I participated in a tour of Prudhoe Bay oil field facilities that was hosted by BP for the staff seminar participants. BP paid for the cost of a roundtrip chartered aircraft from Anchorage to Deadhorse. The total value of the trip and all services provided on the North Slope, per individual, was $250.

If further information is required, please contact me.

Yours truly,

Karl Ohls
Legislative Assistant

To: Senate Secretary
Alaska State Senate

From: Michelle Grose mg
In-Charge Auditor
Division of Legislative Audit

Date: January 4, 1993

Pursuant to AS 24.60.070, I am hereby disclosing a close economic association with Kim J. Garnero. Specifically, we jointly own the Grose and Garnero, CPAs partnership.

Ms. Garnero is also employed as an in-charge auditor with the Division of Legislative Audit. She has acted as my direct supervisor on audits in the past and there is a possibility that she will supervise me in the future.

November 3, 1992

The Honorable Virginia Collins
Chair
Senate Ethics Committee
3111 C Street, Suite 540
Anchorage, Alaska 99503

Dear Senator Collins:

I wish to disclose that over the legislative interim I accepted three separate gifts of travel in order to obtain information for legislative and constituent purposes.

On July 21, 1992, I flew on an airplane chartered by Afognak Joint Ventures from Kodiak to Afognak Island, where I toured logging sites and corporate properties. The value of my share of the trip was $200.

On July 29, 1992, I flew on a National Park Service chartered airplane from Kodiak to Katmai National Park to tour the coastline portion of the park. The value of my share of the trip was $250.

On August 8, 1992, I flew on a helicopter chartered by the Ketchikan Pulp Corporation from Metlakatla to Ketchikan to Prince of Wales Island in order to tour logging industry facilities. The value of the charter was $900.

If further information is required, please contact me.

Yours truly,

Fred F. Zharoff
Alaska State Senator

TO: Nancy A. Quanto, Senate Secretary

FROM: Helen L. Fisher
Senate Records (Ph. 4452)

DATE: 1/6/93

This is to let you know that my spouse, James E. Fisher is a pro bono lobbyist for Alaska Legal Services.

MEMORANDUM

December 22, 1992

TO: Representative David Finkelstein, Chairman
Select Committee on Ethics

FROM: Senator Arliss Sturgulewski ^W
Senate District F

RE: Disclosure of Gift of Travel

Pursuant to AS 24.60.080(d) I am hereby disclosing a gift of travel and seminar expenses which I estimate to be $5,000 from the Council of State Governments to participate in the Japan-U.S. Health Care Exchange.

To date I have participated in three phases of the exchange. From September 10-13, I attended an introductory seminar in San Francisco, California. From November 14-17, I attended the second phase of the project at the Western Legislative Conference Annual meeting in Guam and from November 18-23, I attended the third phase of the exchange in Tokyo, Japan.