No. 3

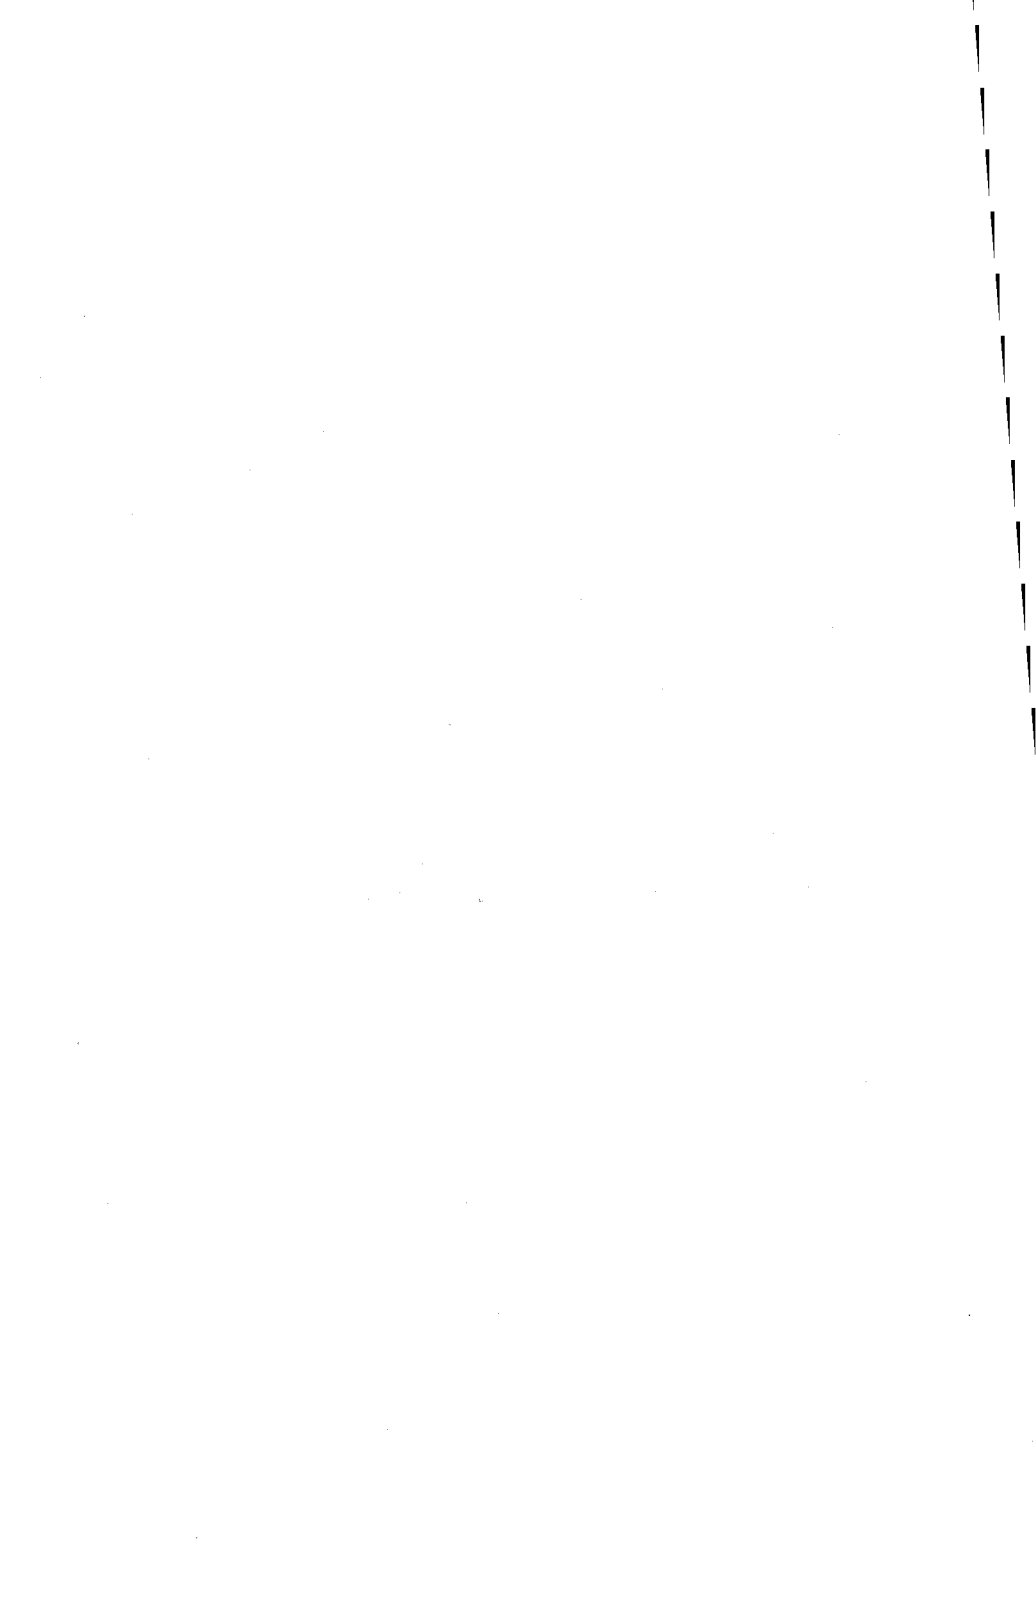

DISCLOSURE LETTERS

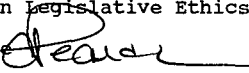

Pursuant to

AS 24.60.076

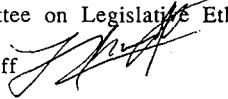

and

AS 24.60.080

To: Select Committee on Legislative Ethics
 From: Senator Drue Pearce
 Date: January 27, 1993
 Re: Disclosure

Pursuant to AS 24.60.080, I am filing the following disclosure. In my capacity as an Executive Committee member of the Energy Council, a legislative organization, I traveled to Seattle to speak to the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners (NARUC). I presented a slide show and summarized The Energy Council's Background Paper on North American Natural Gas to the Committee on Gas. I traveled to Seattle the afternoon of July 27, 1992. I gave my presentation and returned to Anchorage on July 28. Hotel, airfare, cab, and meals were paid for by the Energy Council. The combined value exceeded $100.00.

 RE: Disclosure

In accordance to AS 24.60.080, I would like to disclose that the Pacific Conference provided room and meals with the room valued at $764.20 and the meals valued at $242.61 to me for the December 13-18, 1992 meeting in Hawaii.

If you have any questions, please give me a call.

 RE: Ethics Law Compliance
 DATE: February 11, 1993

Pursuant to AS 24.60.080, I am disclosing several trips and gifts received.

In June 1992, I traveled from Nome to Stebbins and Unalakleet on an aircraft owned and financed by the Bering Straits School District.

On July 2, 1992, I traveled to Barrow from Anchorage for activities in Barrow on an aircraft owned and financed by the North Slope Borough.

On September 24, I traveled from Kotzebue to Deering and Buckland and return to Kotzebue on a flight paid for by the Northwest Arctic Borough School District.

From December 13 through December 18, 1992 the Pacific Conference paid for my lodging, some meals, golf and other miscellaneous gifts.

The estimated value of each of the above would amount to over $100.

Thank you.

TO: Select Committee on Legislative Ethics
 FROM: Senator Steve Rieger Steve Rieger
 DATE: February 11, 1993

The following report is made in accordance with the Legislative Ethics Law:

I received a gift of travel to Seattle from the University of Washington to attend a conference regarding the WAMI Medical Program. The approximate value of this gift was $304.00.

RE: Disclosure

In accordance to AS 24.60.080, I would like to disclose that the University of Washington Medical School provided room and meals for my attendance at the WAMI Conference in Seattle, Washington, December, 1992. They also provided my air and ground transportation. I fronted these expenses in December and submitted them for reimbursement to the University in December, 1992. In December 1992, I was a range 17 and therefore did not need to file a disclosure because I was below a range 18 under the ethics laws in affect at that time. However, I received the air and ground transportation reimbursement today, January 11, 1993. I don't know if it is reportable under these circumstances, but to avoid the appearance of non-compliance or misinterpretations, I am disclosing receipt of this check.

If you have any questions, please give me a call at 465-3473.
