Disclosure of the Existence of a Close Economic Association

The Legislative Ethics Law requires legislators and legislative employees to disclose their close economic associations with supervisors, legislators, public officials (other than appointed municipal officials) who must file Conflict of Interest Statements with the APOC, registered lobbyists and, if the discloser is a legislator, with legislative employees. Disclosure of a close economic association that exists on January 1 of the current year must be received by the Ethics Committee by February 15. If a legislator or legislative employee forms a close economic association after January 1, the association must be reported within thirty days, or by February 15, whichever is later. A disclosure must be sufficiently detailed that a reader can ascertain the nature of the association.

"Close economic association" means a financial relationship that exists between a person covered by this chapter and some other person or entity, including but not limited to relationships where the person covered by this chapter serves as a consultant or advisor to, is a member or representative of, or has a financial interest in, any association, partnership, business, or corporation.

Disclosure of a close economic association, in accordance with AS 24.60.070

Person with whom association exists: Douglas B. Bailey

Person's status (public official, legislator, etc.): registered lobbyist

Description of economic association: 1130 W 8th Ave, Suite 100 is an office condominium. It is owned by a partnership, one member of which is Doug Bailey; it is rented, under a long-term lease, by Ashburn #14000, a professional corporation of which Doug Bailey is a shareholder. Part of the financing for the condominium is provided by a group of investors, of which Doug Bailey and I are members.

Name of Discloser (please print): Margie Mac Nalle

Daytime phone number: 346-3556

Address: 9101 Walk Ave Anchorage, AK 99516

The above is a true and accurate representation of my close economic associations, in accordance with AS 24.60.070.

Disclosure of Gifts of Travel and Hospitality

In connection with a trip to meet with potential vendors of statute publishing and related services for the purpose of receiving comments on a draft RFP and becoming better informed about the state of the art in legal publishing and related data processing matters, and to meet with employees of the present vendor regarding current and ongoing work done for the state, I received the following gifts of travel and/or hospitality:

Butterworth's Legal Publishers, Orford, New Hampshire; two meals and local ground transportation with a total value of less than $100, October 25, 1993.

The Michie Company, Charlottesville, Virginia; two nights lodging at a bed and breakfast, three meals, and local ground transportation including the use of a rental car between Charlottesville and Dulles International Airport, with an estimated total value of between $200 and $300, October 27 and 28, 1993.

West Publishing Company, St. Paul, Minnesota; two meals and local ground transportation with a total value of less than $100, October 29, 1993.

All other transportation, lodging, and meal expenses were paid for by the Legislative Affairs Agency or by the undersigned. The above is a true and accurate representation of my receipt of gifts of travel and hospitality in accordance with AS 24.60.080.

Sincerely,

David R. Dierdorff
Revisor of Statutes
