The Select Committee on Legislative Ethics received a disclosure of participation in the Violent Crimes Compensation program from a person required to disclose under AS 24.60.050. The amount received was $763.00.

The committee issued Advisory Opinion AO 94-07 on April 14, 1994. The committee found that the person was required to report and did report in a timely manner. The committee also found that the person's constitutional right to privacy requires the committee to keep the name of the individual confidential.
