Senate
Resolve No.
1

Relating to a Day of Prayer in Alaska.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE:

WHEREAS the National Day of Prayer is a tradition first proclaimed by President George Washington in 1775 during the First Continental Congress; and

WHEREAS legislation setting aside the first Thursday in May each year as a National Day of Prayer was unanimously passed by the United States Congress in 1988 and signed by the President; and

WHEREAS the National Day of Prayer is an opportunity for Alaskans of all faiths to join in united prayer to give thanks for blessings received, to request healing for wounds endured, to ask divine guidance for our leaders, and to bring wholeness to the citizens of Alaska and our nation;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Senate respectfully requests the Governor to proclaim May 4, 1995, as a Day of Prayer in Alaska.
