LETTERS OF DISCLOSURE

AS REQUIRED BY AS 24.60

Disclosure of receipt of
GIFT OF TRAVEL AND/OR HOSPITALITY
Primarily for
MATTERS OF LEGISLATIVE CONCERN

Explanation

A legislator or legislative employee may not solicit or accept any gift worth $100 or more, or gifts from the same person which total $100 or more in a calendar year. The exceptions to that rule are: hospitality in another person's home or at a social event or meal, discounts available to the public, food that is native to the state, gifts of travel and hospitality to obtain information on matters of legislative concern, gifts from recipient's immediate family, gifts from foreign governments delivered to Legislative Council and gifts not connected with recipient's legislative status. A person who accepts a gift of over $100 under the "matters of legislative concern" exception must disclose receipt of the gift.

RE: Disclosure of Receipt of a Gift of Travel and/or Hospitality

I am disclosing a gift of travel. I traveled to Admiralty Island, Alaska, on April 22, 1995 to obtain information of legislative concern regarding the Greens Creek Mine. The Alaska Miners Association paid for my travel. The value of this gift was slightly over $100.
