On September 10, I traveled from Anchorage to San Diego, California, for Alaska Specific Joint Bridge Team Training for Tankers and Tugs, a certified course taught at Marine Safety International. The course is required for all Keystone Marine bridge officers as a result of their agreement with the State of Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation which was signed after the Kenai incident. I returned to Alaska September 14. (attached schedule on file with the Ethics Committee)

Although I attended as an official observer, I did participate fully in the course and received the same completion certificate required of the Keystone personnel by the agreement. (attached schedule on file with the Ethics Committee)

My participation was paid for by Keystone Shipping Co., Suite 600, One Bala Plaza East, Bala Cynwyd, PA, 19004-1496, as part of their contract with Marine Safety International. The contract does not break out a per person fee, but the approximate value of my participation was $2,000.

My travel, room and board, in the amount of $939.70, was paid for by the South West Alaska Pilots Assn., the marine pilot organization for south-central Alaska, including Prince William Sound. Their address is P O Box 977, Homer, Alaska, 99603.
