ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

This bill adds an allowable absence for employment out of state if certain criteria are met. In addition, Section 2 gives retroactive payment to individuals who were denied dividends in 1997 and 1998 because of an absence from the state due to employment; and retroactive payment to individuals who were accompanying those employed individuals out of state as their spouse, minor dependent or disabled dependent.

We do not expect these provisions to have a fiscal effect on the Permanent Fund Dividend Program.
